

Michael Menser

Class of 1997

Director, Alternative School at Plainfield High School

Education after BHS:
Indiana State University

- Undergraduate degree - finance major and insurance minor
- Transition to Teaching Degree - Business Education
- Masters degree - School Administration
- Participated on the men's basketball team all four years at Indiana State University

Career Summary:

2 years - Financial Consultant at AG Edwards (Now Wells Fargo)

1 year - Assistant basketball coach at Indiana State University

2 years teaching at Riverton Parke High School where I was the varsity basketball coach

8 years at Vigo County School Corporation where I held the following roles:

Teacher, Dean of Students, Athletic Director

Varsity boys assistant basketball coach

5th year at Plainfield High School where I have held the following roles:

Assistant Principal for 3 years

Director of Alternative School (current position) for 2 years.

Assistant Basketball Coach

Family:

Wife Jennie; Children Haleigh - 10, Hannah - 9, and Hadley - 6

Activities while at Batesville High School:

Basketball

Track

Tennis

Cross Country

National Honor Society

Newspaper

Best education-related memory from BHS:

My favorite classes were math classes at BHS with Mr. Heppner, Mr. Cochran, and Mrs. Hoeng. I loved math and all three teachers made it fun throughout my entire career!

A quote (or two) about the importance of education:

Nobody cares how much you know until they know you care.

- Be Nice. Be Honest. Work Hard. Make Good Choices.....(Jenny Menser :)