Best education-related memory from BHS:

- I truly enjoyed all of the social studies classes that I took while at BHS. They helped to grow my interest in history, politics, and the law, which ultimately shaped my career choice. I took World Civilizations, US History, Economics, and AP Government, but especially enjoyed US History with Mr. John Seright.

A personal quote about the importance of education:

- "As a first-generation college graduate, I have seen how education can be a great equalizer. All of us, as Americans, are guaranteed an education, but it is what we choose to make of it that will determine its value and worth."
